The December medal play of the Honolulu Golf Club, decided at Moanalua last Sunday, resulted in M. Jamieson taking first prize, and D. W. Anderson second prize.

McAuliffe, the well known trainer, took Prince David's race horse Weller to Hilo today by the Kinau. There will be a race meeting on the Raiay City on New Year's day.

We understand that some more trouble is brewing at the Waikiki Inn, and that Police officer Lon Agnew is stationed there to prevent the late manager of the Inn from taking forcible possession of the place.

A large dredger which has been under construction down at Emma's wharf for the last couple of months is now nearing completion. The dredger is built for Clark & Henry, the contractors, who will use it on the Pearl Harbor bar.

The dummy found on the Rapid Transit line has been traced to four students at Oahu College. The joke was very practical, and the practical jokers, we hope feel their folly, in a corporeal manner, by this time. Don't fool with railroads or electric car lines, boys.

Prince Cupid's Yacht.

The following letter has been received by Prince Cupid from Bailey & Low, of Auckland, N. Z., who are building a racing yacht for the prince:

"I see that the New Zealand boat is still a crack but I hope that you will have the pleasure of lowering its colors. We have your boat almost finished and she looks like a flyer. There is a race here one week from date in which we will give her a trial, and trust to have the satisfaction of a victory. It is a handicap race for 1½ rating and under. We go about 1½ rating, and have boats much larger to compete against. The best is a boat built by us, 28 feet long, and is faster, so you see we have a big task before us.

"We tried to race with boats 22 feet over all, but the committee reckoned we should race with the larger boats. We entered your boat as the 'Princess,' which we trust will meet with your approval."

The new boat is expected to arrive here on the Ventura. The race above mentioned was to have taken place on December 4, at Pousonby regatta.

Had Run Out.

"Son, why don't you blacken your shoes?"

"These are patent leather, pa, and don't need to be blackened."

"If they are patent leather, the patent expired some time ago and should be renewed."—New York Herald.

The Coffee Industry.

The object of the company is stated as follows: "With full power to buy and own lands, to grow coffee, to buy and sell coffee, both at wholesale and at retail, and to buy, sell and deal in such tropical fruits as may in the opinion of the said corporation be deemed remunerative as a business venture, and to manufacture the same into preserves or jellies or other preparations, and to do the business in the Territory of Hawaii and in all the States and Territories of the United States of America."

The incorporators are Gardner Wilder, 100 shares; J. Coerper, 160 shares; Henry C. Birba Jr., 100 shares; George Rodiek, 4 shares; J. F. Humburg, 4 shares; J. Coerper (trustee), 1,632 shares.

It is said that the green coffee will be shipped to Chicago and roasted there.

Keopik's Anniversary.

Forty years ago on this date, the sun smiled brightly over the isle of Maui because a new citizen had arrived. The youngster was not so stout, not so wise but a great deal better in the path of virtue than, as he now is in the burly shape of forty years old A. N. Keopik. We would have wished to celebrate the day with the genial judge and eminent lawyer, but when duty and $10 a day is in sight Keopik is never wanting, although he has claimed that he was willing to work for glory only—preferring the additional cash however. Many happy returns of the day, old boy, may your shadow never grow less and the sand hills—never mind them—are the wishes of your many friends.

Farewell Concerts.

The band will play this evening at the Hawaiian Hotel; tomorrow evening, Thomas Square; Thursday evening, Moana Hotel. On December 30th the band will leave for Hilo to play at the races, and will be back in Honolulu on January 10, 1902.

The Fire Claims Court is still in session.
